Report of Independent Accountants on Management's Assertion on Compliance with Minimum Servicing Standards Set Forth in the Uniform Single Attestation Program for Mortgage Bankers

The Members of the
New York City Housing Development Corporation

We have examined management's assertion, included in the accompanying report titled Management's Assertion on Compliance with Minimum Servicing Standards Set Forth in the Uniform Single Attestation Program for Mortgage Bankers ("USAP") that New York City Housing Development Corporation (the "Corporation") complied with the minimum servicing standards set forth in the Mortgage Bankers Association of America's USAP for the year ended October 31, 2011. Management is responsible for the Corporation's compliance with those requirements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on management's assertion about the Corporation's compliance based on our examination.

Our examination was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and, accordingly, included examining, on a test basis, evidence about the Corporation's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our examination does not provide a legal determination on the Corporation's compliance with specified requirements.

In our opinion, management's assertion that the Corporation complied with the aforementioned requirements for the year ended October 31, 2011 is fairly stated in all material respects.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, the Members of the Corporation, and the Office of the State Comptroller of the State of New York and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
